

PILGRIMS COVENANT CHURCH

ANNUAL SPRING CONFERENCE

SATURDAY, MARCH 27, 2010

FEATURED SPEAKER: PASTOR POOYAN MEHRSHAHI, Providence Baptist Chapel, Cheltenham, England. Pastor Mehrshahi was born in Tehran, Iran, in 1980—one year after the Iranian Islamic Revolution and the year Iraq invaded Iran, triggering a vicious eight-year-long war. Pastor Mehrshahi was raised in the Zoroastrian religion, with his family following the ceremonies and pilgrimages of that religion. Growing up, he attended both Zoroastrian and Muslim schools where he was made to memorize, in the first, the Zoroastrian sacred book of Avesta and, in the second, the Quran. When Pastor Mehrshahi was a teenager, his family moved to the United Kingdom where he eventually met some Christians who witnessed to him and gave him a Bible. In the course of time, through the study of the Scriptures, by the power of the Holy Spirit, and through the sovereign grace of God, Pastor Mehrshahi came to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. In 2003, he enrolled in the Whitefield College of the Bible, and in 2007, he received the call to the pastorate of Providence Baptist Chapel. In addition to his pastoral duties, he is busy ministering to Farsi-speaking Iranians in England and also open-air gospel preaching. Pastor Mehrshahi has been working with the Trinitarian Bible Society on a Farsi translation of the New Testament and is active in a gospel ministry to the nations of Iran and Afghanistan. Pastor Mehrshahi's messages will include:

“Daniel in Babylon—My Life in Iran”
“Daniel, a Servant of God—The Ministry to God's People”
