

Pilgrims Covenant Church Annual Spring Conference

SATURDAY, APRIL 16, 2011

This year's theme:

The Puritan Way

Our conference will begin at 9:45 AM at the community center, Main Street, Juda, Wisconsin. Two messages will be presented in the morning session and two in the afternoon. There will be a 15-20 minute break between each message, morning and afternoon, for refreshments and fellowship. Coffee, tea, juice, and snacks will be provided, compliments of Pilgrims Covenant Church. There will be book and literature tables, including a Trinitarian Bible Society table with all Bibles, tracts, and other materials at a 25% conference discount. Our noon break will be 90 minutes long. Conference attendees are invited to bring a lunch with them or eat at a local restaurant in Juda or nearby Monroe. There is no cost to attend, but we will take up a freewill offering.

Ralph Ovadal, pastor of Pilgrims Covenant Church, will present a message titled: Against All Odds: The Triumph of Light & Liberty in Holland, a Future Refuge for America's Puritan Forefathers

Our guest speakers will include:

David Carson, pastor of Zion Tabernacle church, Chester, England. Pastor Carson, who was born and raised in County Mayo, Republic of Ireland, is also the chairman of the United Protestant Council and has for many years been very active in open-air ministry. Pastor Carson will speak on:

The English Puritans: Their Principles, Their Preaching, & Their Practice

Dr. Timothy Williams was born and raised in the state of Alaska. He is the pastor of Heritage Baptist Church, Woodstock, Illinois. Prior to his conversion to Christ, Pastor Williams was studying to be a Roman Catholic priest. Pastor Williams regularly leads his congregation in open-air evangelism. He will be speaking on:

The Pilgrims of America: Their Lives & Legacy

Alastair Matthews, who moved to the United States in 1994, is originally from Dunfermline, once the ancient capital of Scotland. He is a Presbyterian licentiate as well as being a speaker and representative for the Trinitarian Bible Society—USA. He will be speaking on:

Scotland in the Time of the Puritans: Yesterday & Today

*“Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel.” Philippians 1:27

In these times of doctrinal confusion, spiritual downgrade, and worldly corruption of the church, including by the “New Calvinist” movement, we believe our conference theme is most timely. Our desire is to stand together for the faith of the gospel with the aim of bringing glory to the Lord Jesus Christ and much good to His church. We would appreciate those who remember this effort in prayer. We will look forward, Lord willing, to seeing many of you on April 16. Please feel free to distribute this flyer and also invite others to attend this conference.
